

AS HE IS SO ARE WE

Read St. John 7:14-19

1 John 4:17

Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

We must be careful as a 21st Century Church, not to judge out of season, or our selfish perspectives, nor from a previous mindset. Our judgements must be on present righteousness and revelations that come from God. Our preconceived ideologies can conjure illegitimate measurements that can formulate misconceptions in our heart and mind. We must therefore think on these things: whatsoever things are lovely, honest, whatsoever things are true and of a good report. We must think on these things that the virtue may flow.

The Virtue: The element that brings healing, wholeness and restoration.

Matthew 25:14

We are servants; person employed by another, especially to perform duties, to the "Most High God". We serve His purposes, His duties, His will, His orders, His commands. We have been given this charge, this is our assignment. Each of us who have assumed this assignment must carry it out as His orders: fulfilling His command. Knowing there will be a reconciliation of our time of our servanthood and His investment.
